

THE READER'S DIGEST

PLEASANTVILLE • NEW YORK

July 4, 1958

Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Director, Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Ally,

Supplementing the letter which I dictated hastily from the R.D. office.

We hesitate to publish the article which I sent you, for the reasons which I gave you, also because we fear that its publication as written might hurt the boy's chance of attaining his freedom. So we'd be most grateful for the opinion of whoever in your organization knows the facts.

Sincerely,